

S.P. Mandali's WeSchool is the sixth educational institute from Mumbai to rank 68th among the top 100 best management institutes in the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) list of 2020

By India Education Diary Bureau Admin · June 24, 2020

 18  0

Mumbai, June 2020: S. P. Mandali's Prin. L. N. Welingkar Institute of Management Development and Research (WeSchool), India's leading B-School is ranked 68th among the top 100 management institutes in India. The National Institutional Ranking Framework list of 2020, has recently been e-Released by the Honorable Minister of Human Resource Development, Shri. Ramesh Pokhriyal 'Nishank' in the august presence of Honorable Minister of State Shri. Sanjay Dhotre.

The participating institutes were assessed broadly on "Teaching, Learning and Resources," "Research and Professional Practices," "Graduation Outcomes," "Outreach and Inclusivity," and "Perception".

Acknowledging this honor and accreditation, Prof Dr. Uday Salunkhe, Group Director, S. P. Mandali's WeSchool, said, "WeSchool's 68th rank in the management institute category in NIRF 2020 ranking inspires us to empower the global citizen leaders of tomorrow through education. As a management institute, WeSchool has always strived to be better than the last milestone and stay ahead of the learning curve. I would like to congratulate the teaching faculty, and staff for their relentless efforts and investment in the development of the institute as a holistic education provider. At WeSchool, learning, unlearning and relearning is a continuous part of our everyday life. We consistently aim to nurture our students to become matured individuals who can lead self, organisations and society."